DO YOU WANT TO BECOME A COMPASS AMBASSADOR?

We are on the hunt for self-driven women who have good networks and love building communities, meeting other like minded women and are passionate about increasing women's opportunities to lead and be at their best.

Whether you are in the city or regional areas around Australia, we would love to hear from you.

AS A COMPASS AMBASSADOR , YOU WILL:

- Be the face of the Compass program in your city or region.
- Advise the Compass team on the needs of your specific community of women, and how we can best support them•Connect, meet and interview influential women in your region
- Help launch new Compass programs for your network and receive a scholarship to each program to allocate as you wish. Please enquire about our profit incentive scheme too for your personal referrals into the Compass program.

- You will be the 'go-to' person for the Compass team of partnerships and alliances that educate and inspire women into action
- You will build your profile in the womens leadership space, and create meaningful connections with influential women and other stakeholders
- Help us launch and run Challenging our Thinking events that appeal to your audiences, inform and shape the topics of discussion and network at the evenings
- Join a group of women across Australia who are passionate about supporting women in leadership positions and who continue the discussion
